ARRIVAL OF THE PRESIDENT AT RICHMOND. The Dispatch of Friday morning says: The President of the United States arrived in this city last night. He came up the river in the United States steamer Engineer, and reached Rocketts at a quarter before 9 o'clock. The regiment of volunteers were in readiness to receive him, and a national salute was fired by the artillery company as the Engineer ap-

A vast concourse of citizens, besides the mili-A vast concourse of citizens, besides the military, were assembled to greet the President, and they cheered tremendously as the steamer appeared, and as the President landed. The following companies were on parade: Light Dragoons, Captain J. M. Shepherd; Fayette Artillery, Captain R. M. Nimmo; the Greys, Captain W. M. Elliott; L. I. Blues, Captain W. Y. Shepherd; Fagels Infantry, Captain J. R. W. Y. Shepherd; Eagle Infantry, Captain J. B. Danforth; German Riflemen, Captain Bodeker; Young Guard, Captain J. H. Richardson; Montgomery Guard, Captain P. T. Moore; State Guard, Lieutent Gay, commanding. These assembled at 5 o'clock, and patiently awaited the arrival of the President.

President Fillmore was received by Mayor Lambert, and, by him and the committee, conducted to the carriage provided for him, and was escorted to the Powhatan house by the military. The procession was a long one, and would have made a fine display had it taken place in the day, Unfortunately, soon after the line left Rocketts, a Summer shower, attended by loud thunder, came up. This was most uncom-fortable for the military and the citizens who were spectators of the scene. It did not, how-ever, rain very hard until Mr. Fillmore and his

He, however, consented to break bread with them at a cold collation to-day.

The President will be received in the portico of the capitol by Mr. Macfarland to-day at eleven o'clock. The proceeding will be attended, we suppose, by the usual parade and circumstance. The following names were registered as among the President's suite: Mr. A. H. H. Stuart, Secretary of the Interior, and wife; Mr. Postmaster General Hall and wife; Miss Jagello, the Polish heroine; Gen. Bankhead; Com. Stringham, and two Misses Stringham; Capt. Powell, U. S. Navy; Lieut. Scott, U. S. Navy, and wife; Mr. Daniel Jenifer, of Md., formerly of Congress; and Mr. John O. Sargent, editor of the Republic, Washington.

CREAT chance for Book Agents to clear from $500 to $1,000 a year! Books of universal utility. SEARS' NEW AND POPULAR WORKS—the most splendidly illustrated volumes for families ever issued on the American continent, containing more than roug mous arous and actions. The entire series have been carefully examined, and strongly recommended to Superintendents, Trustees, and Teachers of Schools, by the following distinguished gentlemen: His Excellency Hamilton Fish, Ex-Governor of the State of New York; Christopher Morgan, Secretary of State, and Superintendent of Common Schools, N.Y.; T. Romeyn Beck, esq., M. D., Secretary of the Regents of the University, N. Y.; the Legislative Committee on Colleges, Academies, and Common Schools; Rev. Edward Hitchcock, Ll. D., President of Amherst College, and Professor of Geology, Massachusetts.

Amherst College, Dec. 25, 1848.

Mr. Robert Sears—Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long-to follow your plans.

Respectfully and sincerely, your obliged servant, EDWARD HITCHOCK.

Respectfully and sincerely, your owner.

*The works alluded to as having been examined and recommended, are as follows: A new and popular Pictorial Description of the United States, Pictorial History of the American Revolution, Scenes and Sketches of Continental Europe, Description of Great Britain and Ireland, Pictorial Family Annual, Treasury of Knowledge, Information for the People, The Family Instructor, Pictorial Sunday Book, Bible Biography, Bible History, and second series of The Wonders of the World.

Gentlemen of respectability and of good address wanted to sell the above popular Pictorial Works. Full particulars of the principles and profits of the Agency will be given on application either personally or by letter. The postage must in all cases be paid.
